HOWARD AVENUE CHURCH PEOPLES.
The Howard Avenue Congregational Church News reviews the personal item field of the church for the last week as follows:
The latest reports from Rev. A. F.
Fehlhand are that he is still living at home in Mazomanie, Wis., and preaching at Lone Rock. His health is not such as to permit heavy work.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George L.
Stockin, August 13, a son, Robert Penn.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pardee were made happy by the arrival of a son in July.

Mr. Charles A. Wurr met with a severe accident recently from which he has not yet fully recovered.

Mr. James H. Lee has been lame for several days from a painful accident which befel his foot. The family are about to take an outing in Nova Scotia.

F. L. Perry and B. H. Lee have been in camp at East Hampton.

C. C. Treat is in East Windsor, Conn.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Parcell have just bought a lot in Milford and expect to be in their new home in December.
We shall be sorry to lose them.

QUITE A VACATION.
Pastor Mutch of the Howard avenue Congregational church and his family were away two weeks in August. There was no effort at sightseeing, but simply the quiet restful enjoyment of the ample hospitality of an old friend in Berks county, Pennsylvania. On one side lay a broad valley dotted with villages and thrifty farms, and on the other a mountain wilderness, at the summit of which the famous old missionary Dr. Muhlenberg used to sit and watch the eagles circling above him.

Within sight are several large iron furnaces, half a dozen noted sanita-rums, the city of Reading and the grave and residence of the famous German Indian agent and interpreter, Conrad Weiser. The smell of the woods and the song of the tree-toad and whip-poor-will is a luxury to those who rarely indulge in it to break the monotony of the dust and the noise of the city.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mrs. Dow, Mother of Dr. V. M. Dow.

Mrs. Julia Townsend Dow, wife of the late Lucius K. Dow of New Haven, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. Pinckney W. Ellsworth, No. 68 Collins street, Hartford, on Thursday of dysentery. Mrs. Dow had been ill about two weeks, but had previously enjoyed good health. She was in her eighty-eighth year and lived in Hartford nearly forty years. Mrs. Dow was a member of the Center church and was a constant attendant until a few years ago when she was afflicted with deafness. Mrs. Dow kept a diary up to the time of her illness. She leaves one son, Dr. Virgil M. Dow of New Haven, and a daughter, Mrs. Ellsworth.
The burial will be in New Haven today.

DEATH OF MRS. MAE MILLS.

The many friends of Mrs. Lewis J.
Mills, nee Miss Mae Colwell, will learn with sorrow of her death yesterday.
She was for a long time secretary for her father, Daniel Colwell, general secretary of the Knights of Columbus.
She was attacked with cholera morbus on Thursday and sank rapidly until her death.

Last February she became the wife of Lewis J. Mills, and then left her father's office in which she had served as stenographer for several years. She was an amiable and accomplished young lady, and while in her father's office had made many friends among the officers and leading men of the Knights of Columbus throughout New England.

THE LATE MISS PECK.
Miss Harriet E. Peck of 119 College street, whose death was caused by apoplexy, which occurred Thursday evening, was born in this city eighty-nine years ago. She was the daughter of Captain Ebenezer Peck, one of New Haven's bravest patriots of independence days. Nearly all her life was spent in this city. She had for many years past lived quietly in the home at 119 College street, where she died. About four years ago a niece came to live with her as companion and staff to her declining strength. Miss Peck was the only surviving child of Captain Peck. She was, during the greater part of her life, a valued and devoted member of the Center church.

FUNERAL OF JOHN LEGO.
The funeral of John Lego was held from his late residence, 195 Wooster street, yesterday afternoon, and there was a large attendance of friends, among whom were many old and well known citizens. The Rev. William A.
Beardley of the St. Thomas church officiated. The pallbearers were from Quinnipiac lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F. They were Councilman Scoble, A. May, H. M.
Powell and Robert Sizler. The interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

FUNERAL OF NICODEMUS HINDINGER.
The funeral services of Nicodemus Hindinger took place yesterday afternoon at his late residence on Morse street, Hamden, attended by a very large number of grieving friends. Rev.
Mr. Timm of the George street German Lutheran church officiated and in his funeral address spoke very highly of the deceased, who was a reliable and respected man, and had been for years a member of the church over which the speaker presides. There were a number of beautiful floral pieces from the members of the family and others. The pallbearers were Messrs. D. Viesel, P. Messenger, Mr. Beardley, and P. Hubbsch.
Stahl & Hegel were the funeral directors in charge. The deceased lived in New Haven and Hamden for thirty or forty years. He leaves a widow and several children. For the last ten years he had been retired from business. His age was seventy-four years and eleven months. The interment was in Maple Dale cemetery, this city.

Jolly Milkmen.
The milkmen of New Haven and vicinity held their annual picnic Thursday at Lighthouse Point. A first class dinner was served by Gilman & Quinn.
The main feature of the day was a five mile bicycle scratch road race. The following are the riders with their time:
E. Welch, 19:33; M. Myers, 19:43; C. E.
Smith, 20:25; A. Todd, 20:41; F. Zeigle, 21:18; A. Johnson, 21:40; G. F. Hallacker, 18:00. The prizes were a diamond pin, rubber coat, revolver, sweater, horse-whip and pair of slippers, in the order of the finish.

About Band Concerts.
At a meeting of the conference committee of the common council on the matter of band concerts, to settle the differences between the committees of the aldermen and councilmen, it was voted to sustain the band committee in their schedule as played this summer.
The schedule as originally formed was followed, although it was proposed to change the location of two of them to Bay View and Quinnipiac parks.

Home From a Trip.
Councilman Howard Adt has returned from a trip to Chicago. He is now traveling for the Excelsior Needle company of Torrington.

The Act is Upheld.
Trenton, N. J., Aug. 30.—In the case of Albert Rushworth against the common pleas court of Hudson county to test the constitutionality of the naturalization law passed at the last session of the legislature, Justice Van Sickle of the supreme court to-day filed an opinion in which the act is held to be constitutional. The act in question provides that "no person shall hereafter be naturalized or admitted to be a citizen of the United States by any court of this state within thirty days next preceding any national, state, municipal, general, special, local or charter election."

Much Run Down Without strength or appetite, was my condition last spring. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me. The first bottle helped me. I continued and my appetite improved and that tired feeling left me. Formerly my hands trembled badly, but in Hood's Sarsaparilla I found a wonderful nerve tonic. It is a grand medicine for the blood and nerves." H. R. SQUIRES,
